

I have stated to myself and to my wife, just as she to me, that it would be terrible to lose our K-LOVE station. We are not alone.

Many, if not all, of the folks in our local church depend on K-LOVE for daily inspiration. Just by listening, I know that we are not alone in this capacity.

Everything they do is in the best interest of the listeners. Prayer, inspirational music and information, and vital news are just a few wonderful aspects of K-LOVE that are in the best interest of all its listeners.

I thank the LORD for K-LOVE and pray for them often. WE also contribute faithfully.

Thank you for the opportunity to express my feelings on this matter.
